New Auditorium Gained From Bond Issue

Running the legal matters of school is the main concern of the school board. The members employ teachers and keep up the maintenance of all Putnam City Schools. They also recommend bond issues. One of the bond issues recommended and passed will provide PCW with an auditorium.

Mr. Leo C. Mayfield, who is vice-president of the Oklahoma Education Association, was largely responsible for the passing of this bond issue.

Mr. Fred R. Caviness, one of the assistant superintendents, maintains the operation of the Putnam City School district.

New is the position of Assistant Superintendent is Mr. Orville Robinson, who is in charge of personnel. Mr. Robinson took the place of Mr. J. Frank Malone, who retired and became headmaster at Heritage Hall.

In charge of all materials ordered by teachers and schools is Purchasing Agent Mr. Glen Crouch.

Taking time out for a deserved break and to talk with Purchasing Secretary Mrs. Helen Erwin is Principal Melvin F. Corn.

Mr. Melvin F. Corn is Principal of Putnam City West for his fourth year. One of his main goals is to increase public relations.

Parents Receive New Insight To PCW

Showing the PTA Secretary, Mrs. Franklin Elliot, around the school on Wednesday tour day is Assistant Principal Dean Wild.

Mr. Dean Wild and Mr. Fred Hambrick are assistant principals. They handle discipline problems and maintain contact with parents.

Wednesday tour day, to explain the school to patrons, was to help better public relations. Also to help with public relations were the Coffee-klotches held at some of the parents' homes at which Mr. Corn explained the problems and needs of the school. One thing that is needed that was received was the new auditorium to provide extra classroom space that will be needed in the future. These two ideas were for the benefit of the parents so that they could better understand what happens in a school day.

Mr. Dean Wild and Mr. Fred Hambrick help Mr. Corn to run the school by handling discipline problems. They each took half of the alphabet of the three grades. This was done so that they could have the same students each year. They also call the parents if their children are having any trouble and are absent too much.

Counselors Emphasize Personal Contact

Mr. Leon John —
Students A-D, Mrs.
Maxine Stiles —
Students E-H, Mrs. Kay
Heusel — Students I-O,
Mrs. Mary Campbell —
Students P-R, and Mr.
Dwain Jindra —
Students S-Z

Caught by the photographer getting ready to relax and read the newspaper is library secretary Mrs. Carolyn Powell.

Helping Counselor Mrs. Maxine Stiles is Mrs. Marge Weekly, secretary for the counselors since West opened.

Emphasis on personal contact with students was increased by the counselors. The alphabet was divided so that they could have continuous contact with what the student does or has done in high school.

Mr. Dwain Jindra is a new counselor, replacing Mr. Jim Coffey. Mr. Jindra has been a science teacher at Hefner and a counselor at Putnam City. Mrs. Mary Campbell is also a new counselor, however she still teaches three classes of history.

Counselors Maxine Stiles, Kay Heusel and Leon John continue in their capacity, helping ready students for life outside the academic area.

Mrs. Ame Gorena — Librarian, Mrs. JoNell Loepp — Librarian, Mr. Richard Sparks — A.V. and Textbook Director

Secretaries Play A Big Part In Daily Routines

Mrs. Viola Davidson — Principal's Secretary, Mrs. Edith Raymo — Financial Secretary, Mrs. Helen Erwin — Supply Secretary, Mrs. Jane Dunlop — Registrar, Mrs. Toni Beller — PBX Operator

W. C. Fields visited P.C.W. in films. For three days W. C. Fields films, including the old classics of early movies were shown by U.A.V.W. for a dime.

During the week of November 8-12 the library held the fourth annual Book Fair. They also held an orientation for sophomores during their English classes to show them how to use the library.

Keeping attendance, ordering supplies, school activity finances, grade distribution, lining up substitute teachers, answering telephones and taking messages are a part of the job of West's secretaries.

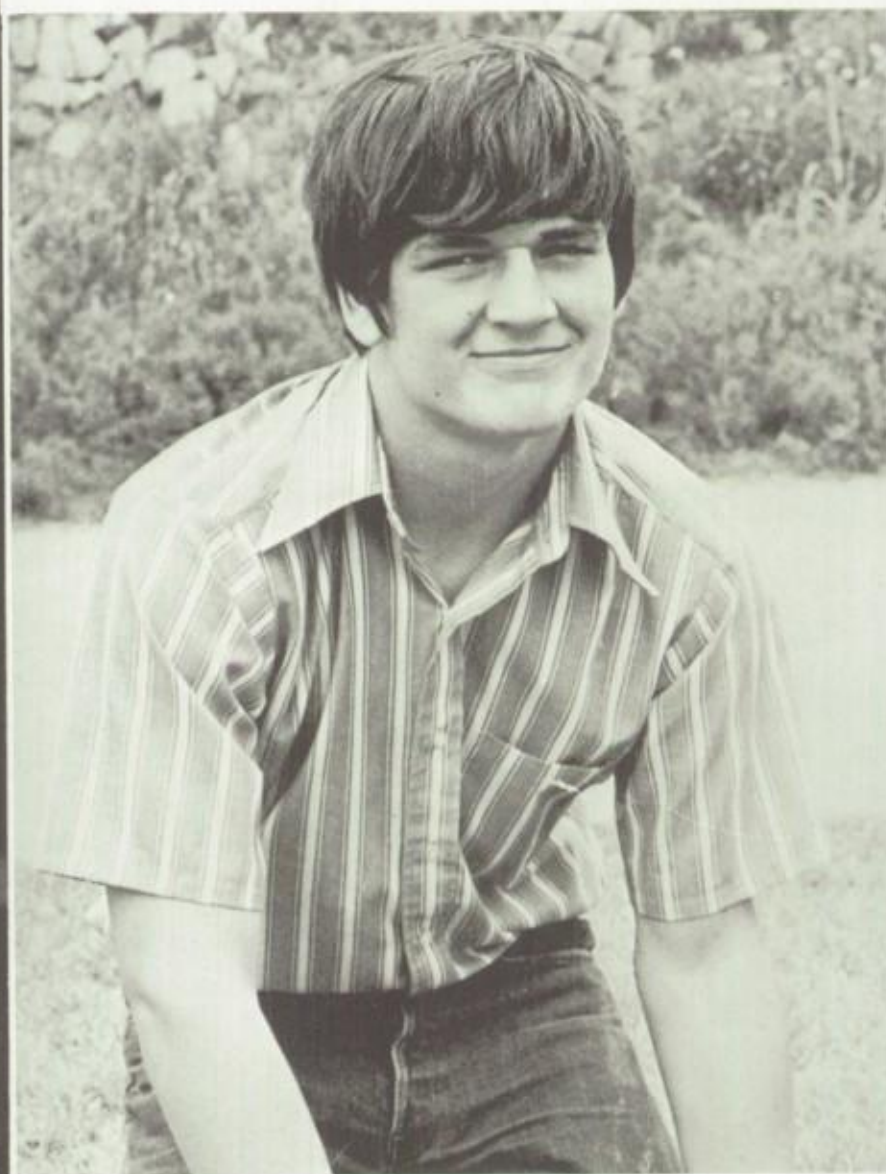

Pausing in her typing to look at the photographer is Mrs. Toni Beller. Looking over her shoulder is Mrs. Rae Nordquist.

Members Decorate Windows For Christmas

Giving art students a chance to express artistic talents outside the classroom, the Art Club took part in art shows and went on field trips to Gilcrease and Philbrook museums in May. Students participated in competitive shows at the Redridge Art Museums, Edmond Art Festival and Young Talents art show.

Attending the Eight State Art Exhibit on October 7 at the state fairgrounds, members experienced art work from an eight state area. The members had their annual Christmas art sale in December as a money-making project and created Christmas decorations, paintings, water colors and sculptures to sell.

Art Club Officers: (Foreground) Interclub Council Representative Gordon Austin and Social Chairman Diana Pierce. (Background) Secretary-Treasurer Cherie Organ and Vice-President David Rothaus.

Losing their uniforms in the fire at the Mayfair Shopping Center August 29 was a misfortune for the Patriot Band. Without uniforms the Patriot Band still gave traditional half-time entertainment at many football games and concerts throughout the year.

Crowning the Band Queen after the game against McGuinness and the fall concert December 9 were among the early activities of the Band.

"Smile" and "Love" plaques were sold by members of the Band to raise money for their trip, the destination of which was decided upon in spring.

Making their debut at the last home game was the Flag Corps, consisting of sixteen girls in Pep Club uniforms carrying blue and gold flags in formation with the band.

Competing in the Pre-Contest Competition at Central State, the Band went on to District Contest at OCU and the State Contest at OU.

Setting the mood for Thanksgiving is November Band Calendar girl Janet Nichols.

W. C. Fields, Little Rascals Guests

"Come one, come all!" was the cry heard by many students passing the Little Theater. The United Audio Visual Workers showed movies to the students during all three lunch periods. Starring such greats as W. C. Fields and the Little Rascals, these films proved to be an immediate success among the student body. The proceeds of these films went to purchasing equipment for the Audio-Visual department.

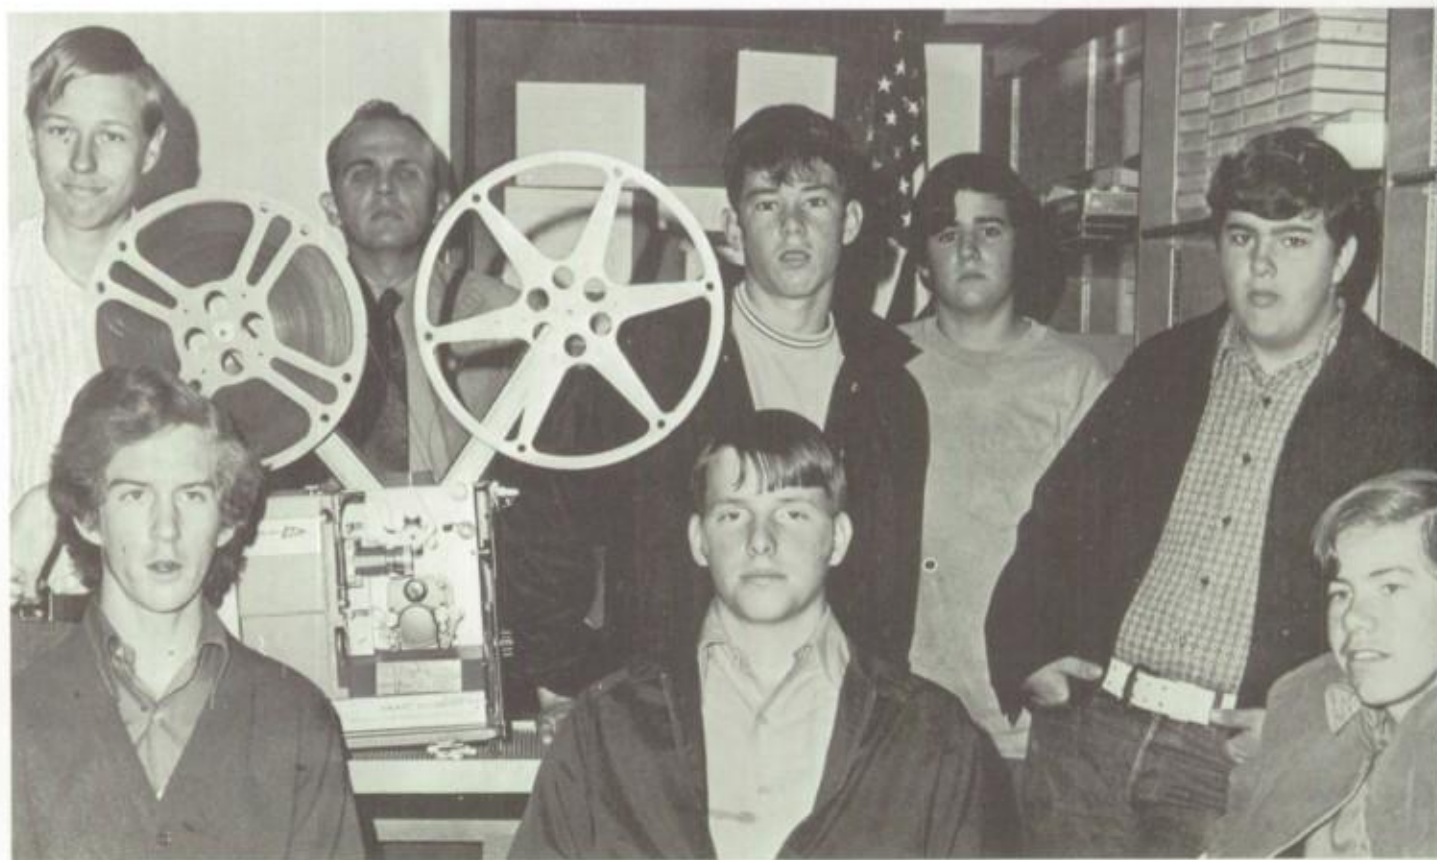

Members also ran films for classrooms and spotlights in assemblies, as well as video-taping special events, sports, and school functions.

Christian Girls Promote Christ-like Life

Members of the Fellowship of Christian Girls changed their organization to Campaigners for Christ. The club was organized last year to help girls come closer to Christ. Any girl that was interested in participating in the club's activities could join. Holding their meetings on the first and last Mondays of each month kept the many members occupied. Monday evenings a guest speaker was usually available for a question and answer session.

Election of eight officers was one of the many tasks that awaited the new members when they joined. The girls were sponsored by Mrs. John O'Donohue.

Representing the Campaigners for Christ as a school calendar girl is Nancy Gann, an active participant in their activities.

In existence for the fourth year the Chess Club's membership has continued to grow. Strategy, know how, and sportsmanship were the abilities required to join the club. Eight members met these requirements.

Holding their meetings on the first and third Fridays of every month, the club learned and practiced their "plan of attack." Changing their pace a little by trying their hand at a new sport, the club held a bowling party in December.

Preparing for an annual chess tournament that was held in March, kept the members busy. The tournament was open to anyone who wanted to participate.

Coronation Held During First Chorus Musical

"We've Only Just Begun" was the theme for the Chorus Department's first concert. During the concert the chorus King and Queen Coronation was held. Crowned were Gwen Mustain and Gene Reeves.

Giving their first musical, the Chorus Department presented "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on December 20.

Attending a Thanksgiving Festival at Oklahoma State University was the Advanced Girls Glee Club. Rehearsals were held all afternoon and a concert giving that evening. An orchestra accompanied the chorus and the closing song was "From Sea to Shining Sea".

Added to the department was a Girls Glee Club. The club has about 35 members and four officers. The chorus department had three student teachers, Mrs. Pam Simmons, Mr. Tyrone Smith and Mrs. Cheryl Garrison.

Participating in the Central State University Concert and the District and State Contest were the West Chimes, Girls Glee Club and West Aires.

Campaign speeches kicked off the Distributive Education Club of America's activities in September.

DECA, with the help of sponsor Tom Friedemann, participated in fund-raising projects including a bake sale, dances, and sales drives. By selling cardboard furniture, combs, brushes, and candy, two hundred dollars was collected for the Kidney Foundation between October 1 and 21 by hard-working members.

Kathy Craighead represented DECA as Patriot Calender Girl and was also a candidate for DECA sweetheart. Other candidates for sweetheart were senior Peggy Spencer and junior Sheryl Kirkpatrick.

Enthusiastic members traveled to Dallas where they toured all seven floors of Nieman Marcus and different departments of the Apparel Mart.

Sheryl Kirkpatrick and Keith Kaser presented a program to Oklahoma City and Northwest Kiwanis to inform businessmen about DECA and their activities.

Kathy Craighead represented DECA as Patriot Calender Girl. She was chosen over eight other girls representing various clubs.

Thespians Develop Theatrical Productions

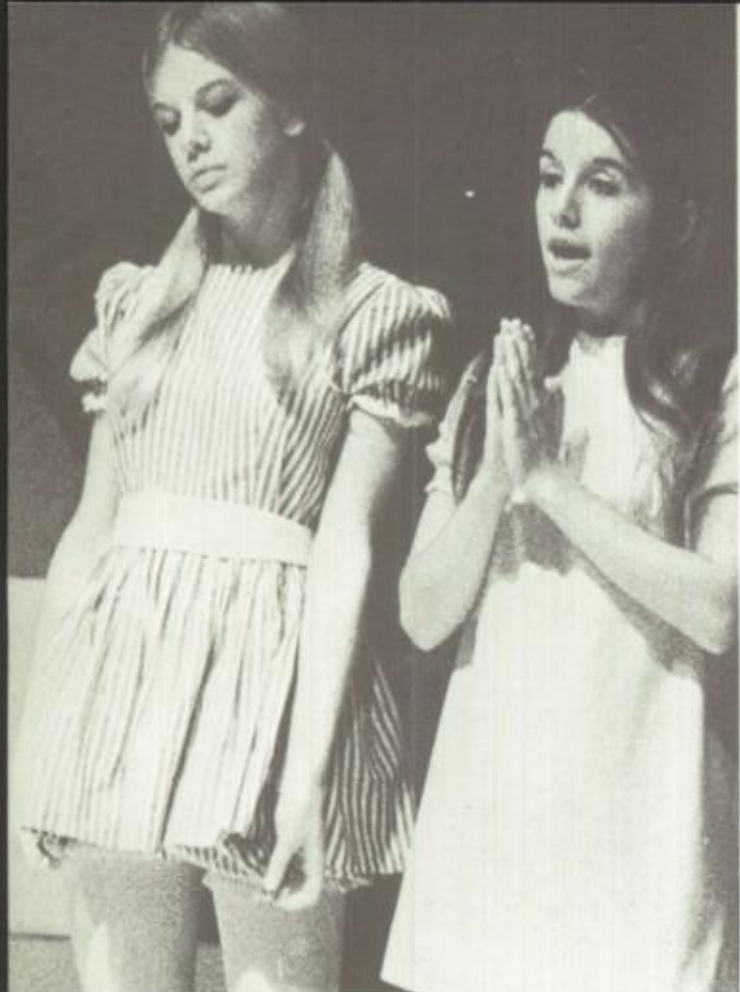

Four productions of one act plays, "Gloria Mundi", "Childhood", and "Good-bye to the Clown" were sponsored by the Drama Department in fall.

"The Gumdrop Dragon" and "The Reluctant Dragon" were produced exclusively by the Drama student for several grade schools in the Spring.

All students interested in participating in the all-school play held in Spring had the opportunity to try out at the open audition.

Operating on the "point system", pledges and members earned their points by participating at meetings, tournaments, and plays.

Athletes Support State's Largest Chapter

Meeting once a month on an informal basis the Fellowship of Christian Athletes was organized to bring its members together in the fellowship of Christ and in helping others.

After reaching a membership of one hundred, the largest in the state, F.C.A. members ate 632 hot dogs to celebrate their achievement.

Guest speakers at meetings included Coach David Baker, athletic director at Bethany Nazarene College, and Larry Amundson, a wrestler from "Athletes Action".

Projects included selling window stickers to send the captain-elect to the F.C.A. camp in Estes Park, Colorado, for leadership training.

Students Teach And Observe Children

Observing the techniques used to teach cerebral palsy children was an activity of the Future Teachers of America. Another activity dealt with experiences with disadvantaged children in the Oklahoma City Public Schools. The girls attended the Spring Convention at OSU in March and helped teach elementary students for a period of six weeks under direction of the teachers.

Any student who is interested in an educational profession may join the club. The FTA students didn't have any monthly meetings or any money-making projects. Instead the girls went on different field trips. FTA is affiliated with a national organization, and the state OEA.

Members Spent Time Helping The Needy

"Help the needy" was the cry of the Health Careers Club.

The organization sponsored a giagntic garage sale in PCW cafeteria in early December. The proceeds were donated to charitable community projects and organization.

They took children from the Bethany Convalescent Hospital to the Lawton-West football game which was held November 5.

In addition they practiced first aid on a dummy named Resasiann, which was provided by the Deaconess Hospital and heard speakers from the Army Nursing Corps.

The initiation of 95 juniors and 25 seniors into the National Honor Society took place in the cafeteria on February 17. Mr. Frosty Troy, the editor of the Oklahoma Observer, was the guest speaker for the evening.

Only juniors and seniors were eligible to become members. They must have had a 2.5 grade point average grades 9-11 or 9-12. The students must also have qualified in the areas of citizenship and leadership and have had the approval of the school faculty to join the club.

The members' goal was to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of American secondary schools throughout the country.

Organization Revives Ancient Roman Customs

Having a Roman Style open-air banquet was the highlight of the year for the Latin Club. This occurred on the oldest of Roman holidays, the Ides of March, which is a memorial of Julius Ceasar's death.

Earlier in the year they had their first meeting at Shotgun Sams Pizza Palace and in January they sponsored a skating party for all foreign languages and art clubs.

As a closing activity in late May, the Latin Club along with all of the foreign language clubs, went to Six Flags Over Texas for their annual FUN raising project.

Organization Encourages Student Writing

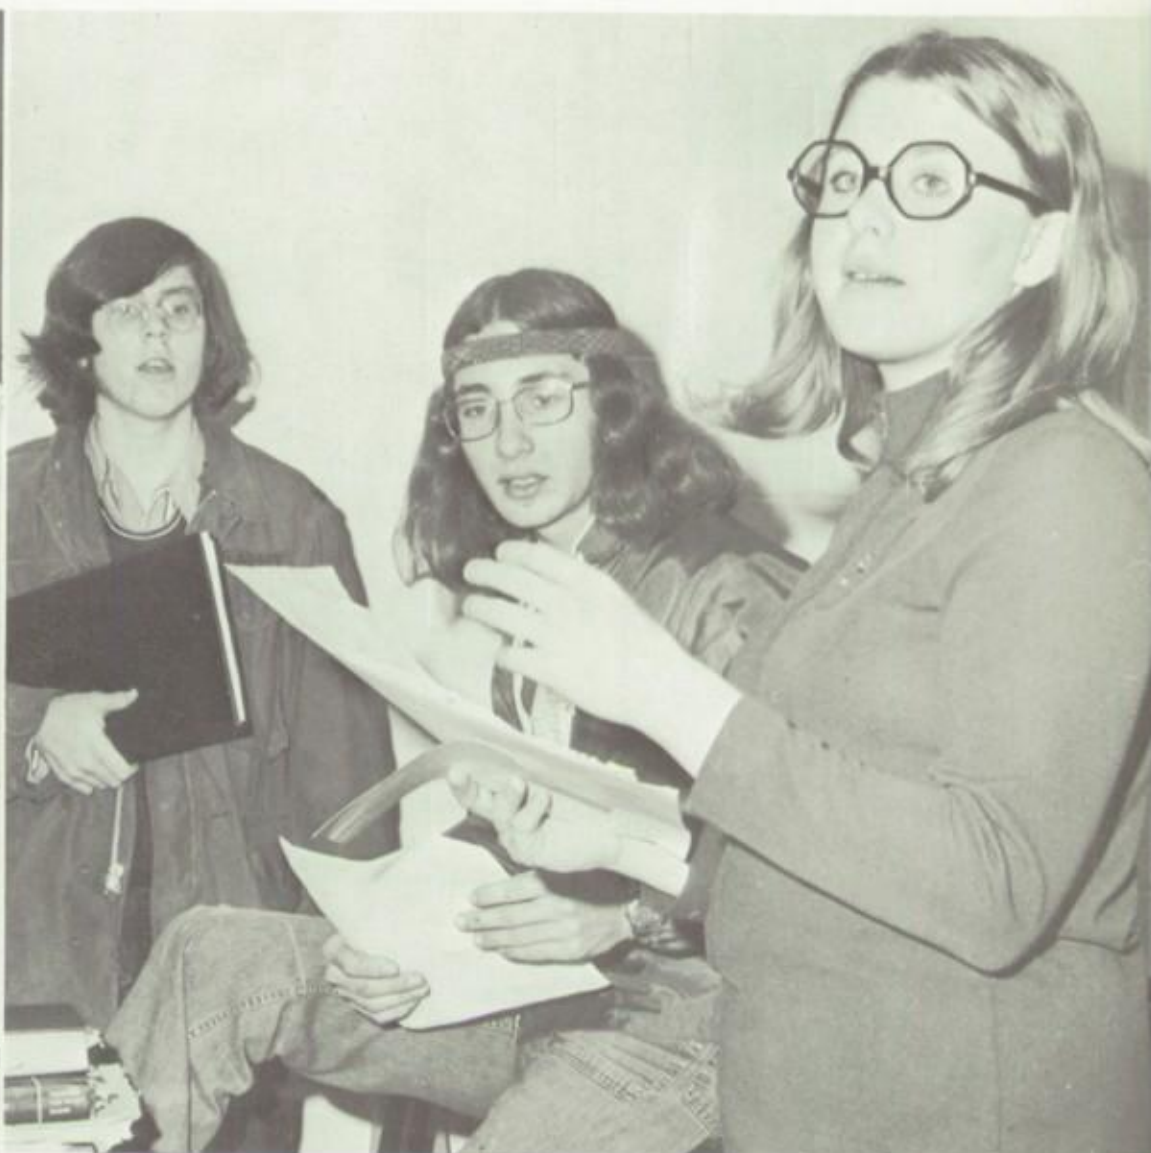

Holding their organizational meeting during the early part of October, members of the Literary Club discussed objectives for the year and elected fellow members as the Executive Committee. Any student interested in creative writing was encouraged to join.

Getting underway, the Literary Club promised publication of "Write On," and "mini-mag" containing poems, short stories and plays written by students and submitted to Mrs. Joan O'Donohue, the sponsor.

Saving the best of the submitted writings, the organization published and sold the annual Patriot Anthology, the largest and last project of the year.

Banquet Held For Advanced Math Students

Electing officers in October was the first chore of the members of Mu Alpha Theta, an organization starting its second year at PCW.

Comprised of students excelling in mathematics, Mu Alpha Theta is a national high school and junior college mathematics club promoting mathematical activities with 1400 chapters in the U.S., Switzerland, England, Japan, the Canal Zone and four other countries.

Requirements for membership into the club included recommendation on the basis of high school scholastic records. Each student wishing to enter had to have maintained a 3.5 grade average throughout seven semesters of high school courses.

The organization held its initiation banquet December 2 at which members were officially initiated into the organization. The club took several field trips during the second semester and guest speakers were featured at their meetings.

Mu Alpha Theta officers: (Seated) Carla Scaramucci, Treasurer, and Janet Maxwell, President; (Standing) Gerry Adkins, Vice-President; Mrs. Beth Thompson, sponsor; Dale Arnold, Vice-President; and Pat Davis, Secretary.

Giving up a class to help the office secretaries, the office aides collected attendance slips, recorded attendance and delivered tests, notes and messages from the office to teachers and students.

Office aides were always prepared to help students get an admit slip, locate a lost item, use the telephone or direct them to the principal.

Counselor's aides went to classes and called students to the counselor's office to discuss their classes with their counselors. The girls received no credit for the hours they spent working.

'71 Profile Wins Highest Honors At OIPA

Long hours, hard work and much creative writing, photography and page design went into the Patriot Profile '71, as editor-in-chief Russell Garrett and assistant editors Karen Casey and Diane Schmidt combined efforts to produce this book.

Staff photographers, produced literally every picture in the book. Photography staff members took all the action shots that appeared in the annual.

Other staff members had their activities divided into specific areas of responsibility in the book, which, all totalled, made up a good yearbook.

Sponsor Jim West and editor Russell Garrett confer about the design of several yearbook pages.

Schmidt, David Henley, Kathy Moulton and Cari Scothorn; Staff Members Pam Sullivan, Joni Hurley and Diane Schmidt prepare their pages for the upcoming January deadline.

New Sponsor Leads Towne Cryer Staff

Combining writing, photographic, and design talents, the Towne Cryer staff was put to work on the student newspaper for thirteen issues, from August through May.

Since the Christmas issue last year, the Cryer went to the magazine format. Thirteen local high schools have followed suit, some changing their old tabloid-size format, others who were producing a type-set newspaper for the first time adopted the magazine style for their first newspaper. Changing sponsors along with the new year, Steve Wake took over the job left by Jim West, who went to his new public relations job with the Oklahoma Education Association.

Club Page Editor Elane Schultz and Sports Editor Randy Herring discuss stories that will appear in the next newspaper.

Simmons, Advertising Sales Stephanie Johnson, Reporters Sue Shellenberger, Kim Shubat, and Carol Valenta; Photographers, Duane Denham and Tony Kimery. Sparky Raines and Sue Shellenberger prepare lists for distribution.

Patriettes Rah and Razz At Pep Assemblies

Showing prospective pledges what Pep Club was all about was the first activity of the members at their annual Tea September 2. The installation of new members was preceded by Pledge Day, September 7 to kick off activities. Pledges performed stunts to obtain required signatures from members and teachers. With their devotion to Putnam City West, the Pep Club helped to bring pride to students.

Athletes participating in an upcoming sport events received favors from the Pep Club, through the favors committee. Bake sales, selling ribbons, and pin-selling were money-making projects. Posters made by pledges brightened halls and encouraged school spirit before each sports event. Participation of the Pep Club with school projects and encouragement for Putnam City West teams involved the entire student body in the excitement and the spirit of Putnam City West.

Officers Sell Club T-Shirts To Members

"For the Blue" was echoed throughout the halls along with many different yells from the boys who call themselves Sons of Liberty, more commonly known as the boys pep club, during assemblies and games. Sons of Liberty was a new organization for any boys who wanted to show their true pride and spirit for West. Organization of the club took place in early October, with the election of officers.

Taking and filling out orders for the members' blue and gold T-shirts kept their officers busy in October. Members took bus trips to away games and also attended the school picnic in early spring.

Members Visit Dale Roger's Mental Center

A field trip to the Dale Rogers' Center for the Mentally Retarded was one activity of the Psychology Club.

Guest speakers at meetings included Dr. Bowlain, who spoke on hypnosis to the club December 2, and Bob Elliott who spoke on transactional analysis.

Class activities included working with rats and Skinner boxes and teaching the rats to run a maze correctly and rapidly.

Role playing was a technique used frequently in class during the study of the Family and Environmental Health Units.

Holding their organizational meeting September 21, the Science Club elected officers and made suggestions for club activities such as visits to the Kirkpatrick Planetarium, the Oklahoma University Medical Center, FAA and a greenhouse. The organization also discussed projects with which to improve the school.

In mid-October twelve members of the club went to the Oklahoma City Zoo, where they learned what different animals ate and of their habits. November's field trip was to the Kirkpatrick Planetarium to see the program "The Vikings in Oklahoma." The organization planned to visit the OU Medical Center in December.

Pondering unanswered questions, Women's Liberation, religion and drug abuse, the Student Forum consisted of students interested in letting their opinions be known and hearing others tell theirs.

Planning meetings and activities was the job of a volunteer activities committee which took the place of officers that the Forum felt were not altogether necessary.

Meeting once a month in the homes of fellow members, the group discussed current topics of interest before, during, and after eating the pot luck supper that each member contributed to by bringing a dish of food.

Stuco Plans West's Various Activities

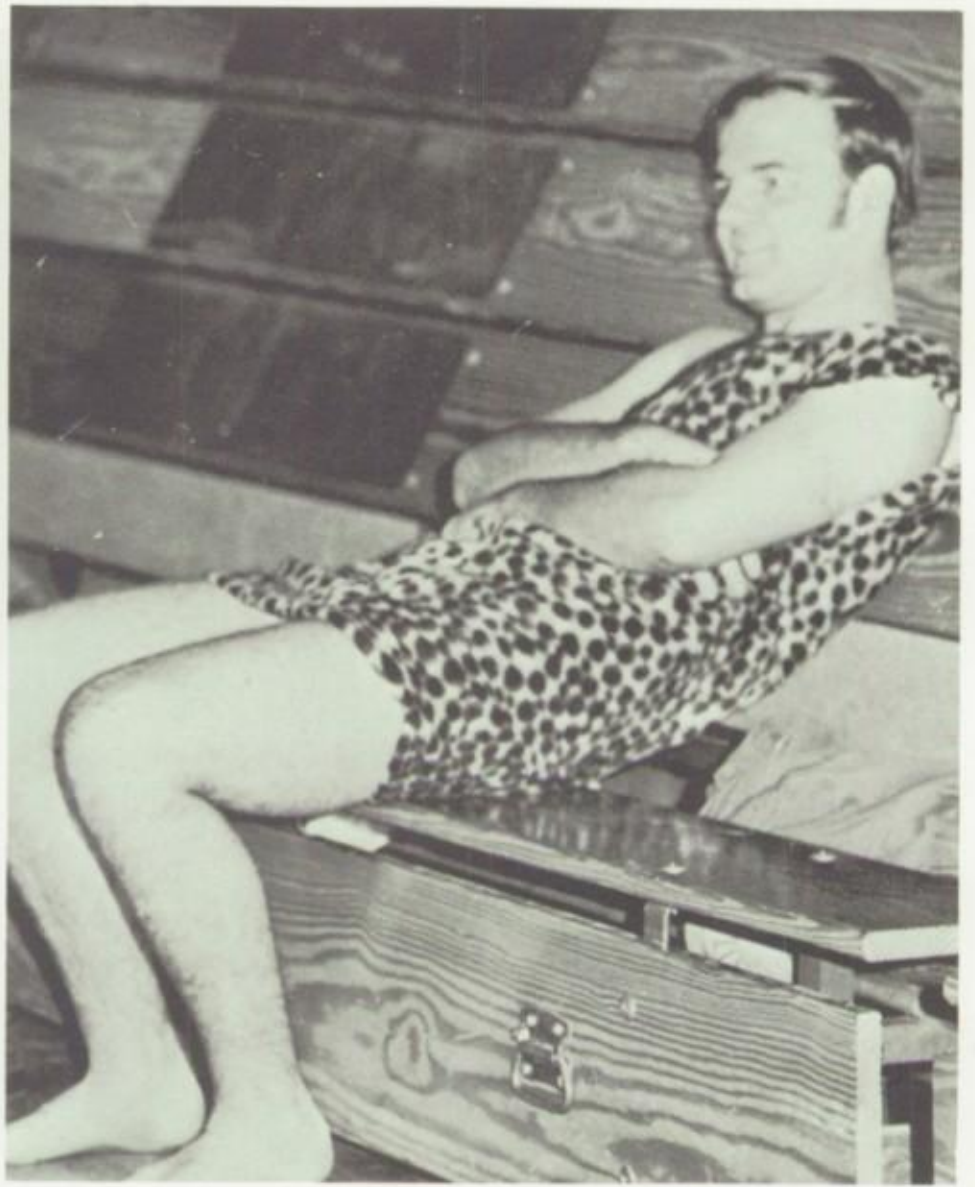

Continually working with students to make the school better, the Student Council ran through a gauntlet of worthwhile charitable and profitable enterprises.

Beginning their activities before school with the summer synopsis assembly, Stuco went on to more fascinating ideas such as the Stucky Candy Campaign, a Stuco workshop and weiner roast and the Thanksgiving assembly which featured the chorus singing "America the Beautiful" and a skit which emphasized the fact that too many people take Thanksgiving for granted anymore.

Charitable projects such as sponsoring people from old folks homes for Christmas were a part of Stuco extracurricular activities. Other projects during the winter season were hosting Student Council officers of district X and Saturday night activities for students.

End of the year activities were the presenting of Mr. and Miss Patriot, the election of the officers for the 1972-73 year and the traditional end-of-school picnic.

Finishing the year with a 3 win and 7 loss season was the Putnam City West Patriots football team, who began the year with a victory over Capitol Hill.

The Patriots exploded Craig Fowler loose for a 95-yard touchdown dash on the first play from scrimmage, then rode the flying heels of Fowler and speedster Terry Smith to a 31-7 victory over the Redskins.

Avenging the loss to last years McGuinness Irish, the Patriots won a 7-6 squeaker, McGuinness scored and tried a two-point run, which was blocked. Terry Smith scored from the one-yard line and Patriot Mark Tippen split the uprights for the extra point.

The Patriots then tasted bitter defeat losing to Norman, Lawton Ike, Yukon, Duncan, Moore, Star Spencer, and Lawton in order, for seven straight games.

The Patriots ended the year with a victory over the John Marshall Bears. The Patriots dominated the game and won by the final tally of 14-10.

Sophomores Dominate Patriot Wrestling Squad

Starting the year off on the right foot the Wrestling Squad came home from the Edmond Tournament with a fourth place victory.

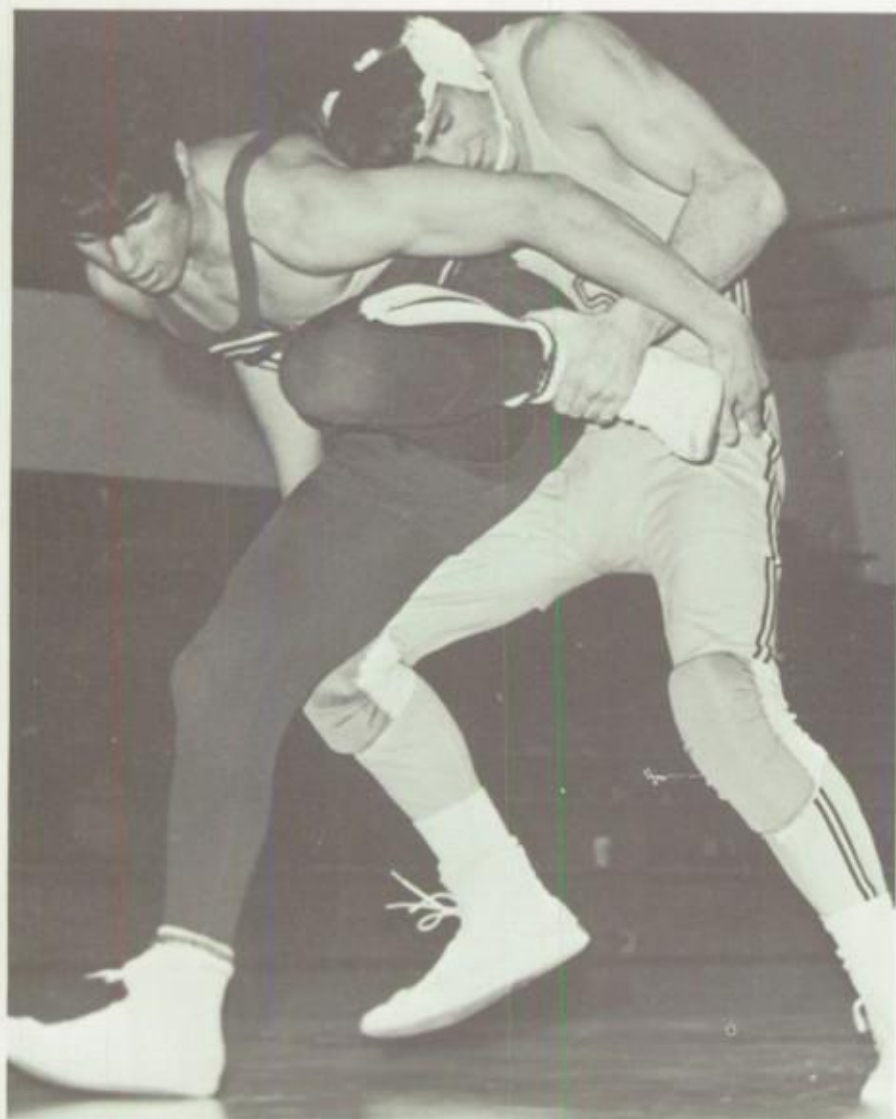

Winning their first match of the season the Patriots defeated the McGuiness varsity. Losing the next five matches didn't bother the wrestlers because they came home with a second place trophy from the Duncan Tournament held January 17-18.

Defeating the Star Spencer Bobcats in the homecoming match started the Patriots back on to the winning track but they ran into defeat against Norman. Winning three of the next six matches the Patriots ended the season with five wins and nine losses. Regionals were held on February 18th and 19th with the Patriots failing to advance anyone to the State Tournament.

Girls' Sports Teams Have Successful Year

Winning seven of nine games, the Girls' Sports Softball team did very well in the fall season. They claimed victory over John Marshall 15-0; Classen 12-7; Southeast 34-16; Putnam City 23-12; Northwest 12-9; Grant 15-5 and Capitol Hill 13-12. The team lost to Edmond twice, 5-6 and 9-10. Eleven girls on the team lettered.

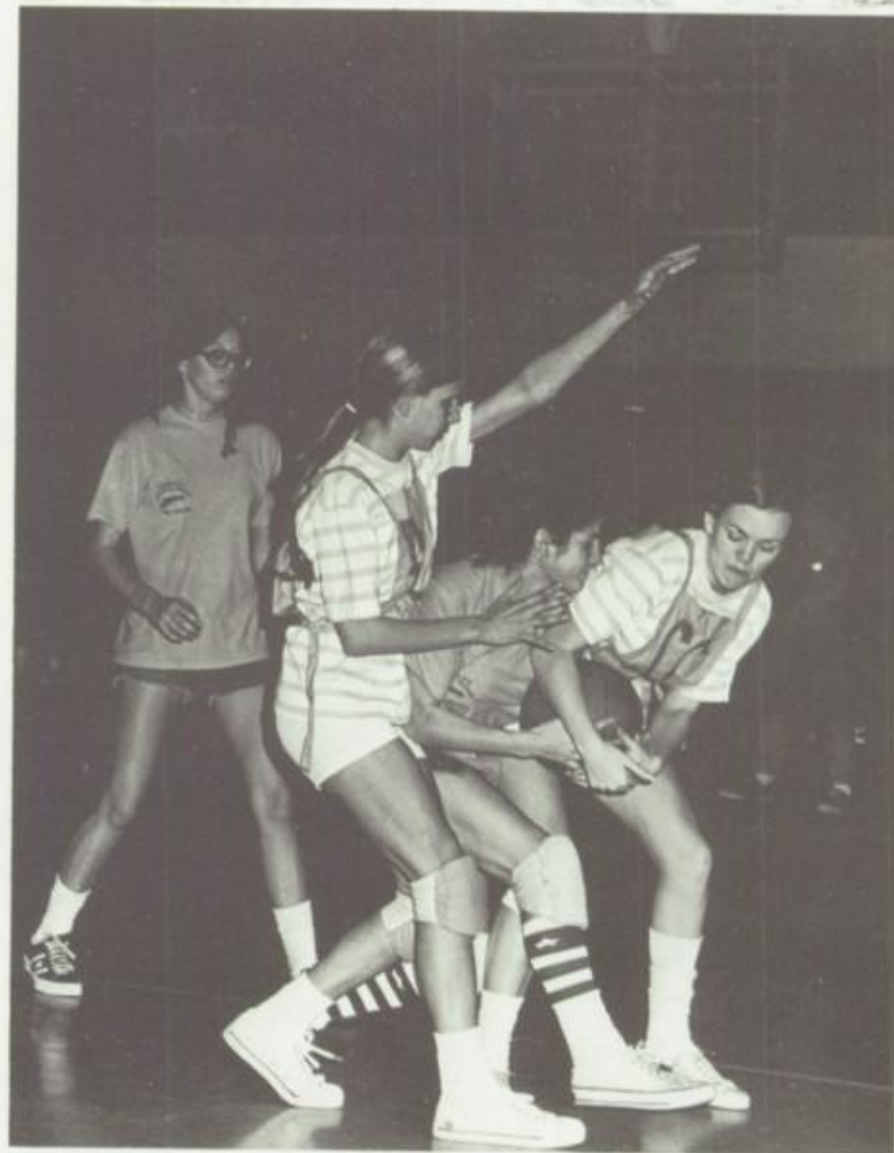

During the Volleyball season the A. B. C. D. and E teams won 49 games and lost only 17. The 1 team defeated Hefner, Edmond, John Marshall, Midwest City, and Putnam City. There were 19 girls from the five volleyball teams who lettered.

Other sports the girls competed in include basketball, in the winter, tennis, track, and softball in the spring.

(Below) Teaching her physical education students the techniques of basketball is Pamela Edlin. (Below, Right) Using techniques they have learned in basketball are two first hour physical education students.

Strengthening minds as well as bodies and enabling them to function with coordination is the goal of the Physical Education Department.

Under the guidance of Mr. Bud Sanders and Mrs. Paulette Groves, the classes compete in various exercises and sports including basketball, volleyball, baseball, football, horseshoes, badminton, archery, croquet and ping pong.

Changes in pace for the P.E. people came when they played co-ed volleyball or a brisk game of dodge ball.

Organizing activities for the seniors during the 1971-72 school year were the officers and sponsors. Events included the senior float for the homecoming parade, Baccalaureate, held in the gym on May 21, and Commencement which was held in the State Fairgrounds Arena May 25.

Winning the float competition as juniors and again as seniors was a first for any graduating class of West. The senior jewelry was rendered as the school crest in yellow and white gold.

Choosing of graduation announcements in December was another preparation for May Commencement. The Junior-Senior Prom held in the Top of the Mall provided a last chance for upperclassmen to gather, while the Senior Class Banquet ended the last meeting of the senior class. Baccalaureate and Commencement ended the reign of the Class of '72 as they prepared to go their separate ways.

(Below) Judy Kahlor pauses for a moment of thought while observing the Patriot head, gift to the school from the class of '71.

Seniors Were Involved In Many Activities

Sylvia Strahorn, secretary; Shelby Kordish, vice president; and Jody Harlin, inter-club council representative.

Presiding over the Junior Class was Tom Henthorn, assisted by, Shelby Kordish, vice-president; Debby Adams, treasurer; Sylvia Strahorn, secretary, and Jody Harlin, inter-club council representative.

Class activities included selling Kazoos and Patriot license tags in September.

In November, the dream of choosing and ordering their Senior rings came true.

In Junior Class tradition, a Christmas assembly was held with humorous skits and songs. Candles were sold, the money going towards the Prom.

In Spring, a Junior's fancy turns to the Prom. Work on the decorations began early to prepare for the festivities. The girls were in a tizzy making provisions for the upcoming event, while the boys were frantically searching for their other black sock. Surrounding all the activities was the familiar chant, "We're the Patriots, proud to be the Senior Class of '73".

Interested sophomores participated in the summer student council to help them become better acquainted with the way the school operates and school traditions.

"We're the Patriots forevermore, Senior class of '74" rang through the halls for the first time when the new sophomores gathered together to prepare themselves for the experience of entering high school in the sophomore orientation held August 26th. On this day sophomores received schedules and lockers and attended an assembly in which juniors and seniors performed skits and various other entertainment that reviewed what the new students were headed for in high school.

The underclassmen elected officers by secret ballot to help them organize their recreational activities, money raising and community service projects.

Bake sales were held November 16th and 17th and December 13th, 14th, and 15th, to raise money for the junior-senior prom they will host next year.

Class Leaders Nominated By Senior Patriots

Eight West seniors were again chosen for the highest student honor of Mr. and Miss Patriot. Repetitious of last year, voting resulted in a run off for Miss Patriot.

Mr. Patriot Craig Fowler served as the captains of the varsity football team and wrestling squad and was nominated Prep Football Player of the Year last year. He has been a member of FCA and has served the club as sergeant-at-arms. Craig has been active in Psychology Club and student council.

Miss Patriot, Carol Sue Smith, has been a member of Pep Club and was a cheerleader during her senior year. She served on the senior class gift committee and was a stuco representative. She was also nominated basketball and football queen candidates this past year.

Marc Strickland served as senior class president, vice president of Sons of Liberty and was chosen as a candidate for a college scholarship. He has been a member of Key Club, Psychology Club and student council.

Darcy Dancer served as executive committee chairman for the student council the past year. She was selected co-valedictorian for 1972 and Key Club Sweetheart. Darcy was a member of the Pep Club, National and State Honor Societies, French, Ecology, and Psychology Clubs. She also served as sophomore representative for student council.

Cary Rogers has served as president of Sons of Liberty and been active in Psychology Club, FCA, stuco and Spanish Club. He also went to the 1971 Oklahoma Boys' State Convention.

Janet Vaughn served as stuco committee chairman and Pep Club decoration committee chairman the past year. She has been a member of Pep Club and been active in Psychology Club and FCG.

Mark Isaac has been student council president for the past year and served as class president his junior year. He was chosen co-valedictorian for his graduating class. Mark was selected delegate to Boys' State last year, Exchange Boy of the Month, Hi Lion of the Month and the state representative for the Teenager of the Year Award this year.

Jennifer Dereberry has served as student council vice president and junior class secretary. She was selected as a Girls' State delegate last year. She has been a member of the Pep Club, French Club, State and National Honor Societies and served as a student council representative. She was also selected as a co-valedictorian this year.

Candidates for Mr. and Miss Patriot: Marc Strickland, Darcy Dancer, Cary Rogers, Janet Vaughn, Mark Isaac and Jennifer Dereberry were chosen to represent the graduating class of 1972.

the staff had made with their layouts. (Right) Sponsor Steve Wake shows a disgusted look after finding out what is expected of him in the coming year.

Dear Patriots:

I've acquired the privilege of sorting and arranging words to write volume four of the 'leditor's etter'. When the first deadline came we didn't have to stay late because we had gotten far ahead of the number of pages that were due.

In the middle of the second nine weeks Mr. West decided to leave us for a better job working for the Oklahoma Education Association public relations department.

When Mr. Wake took over, he had just received his diploma from Central State University. He pulled the staff through the second, third and final deadlines with only a few minor problems.

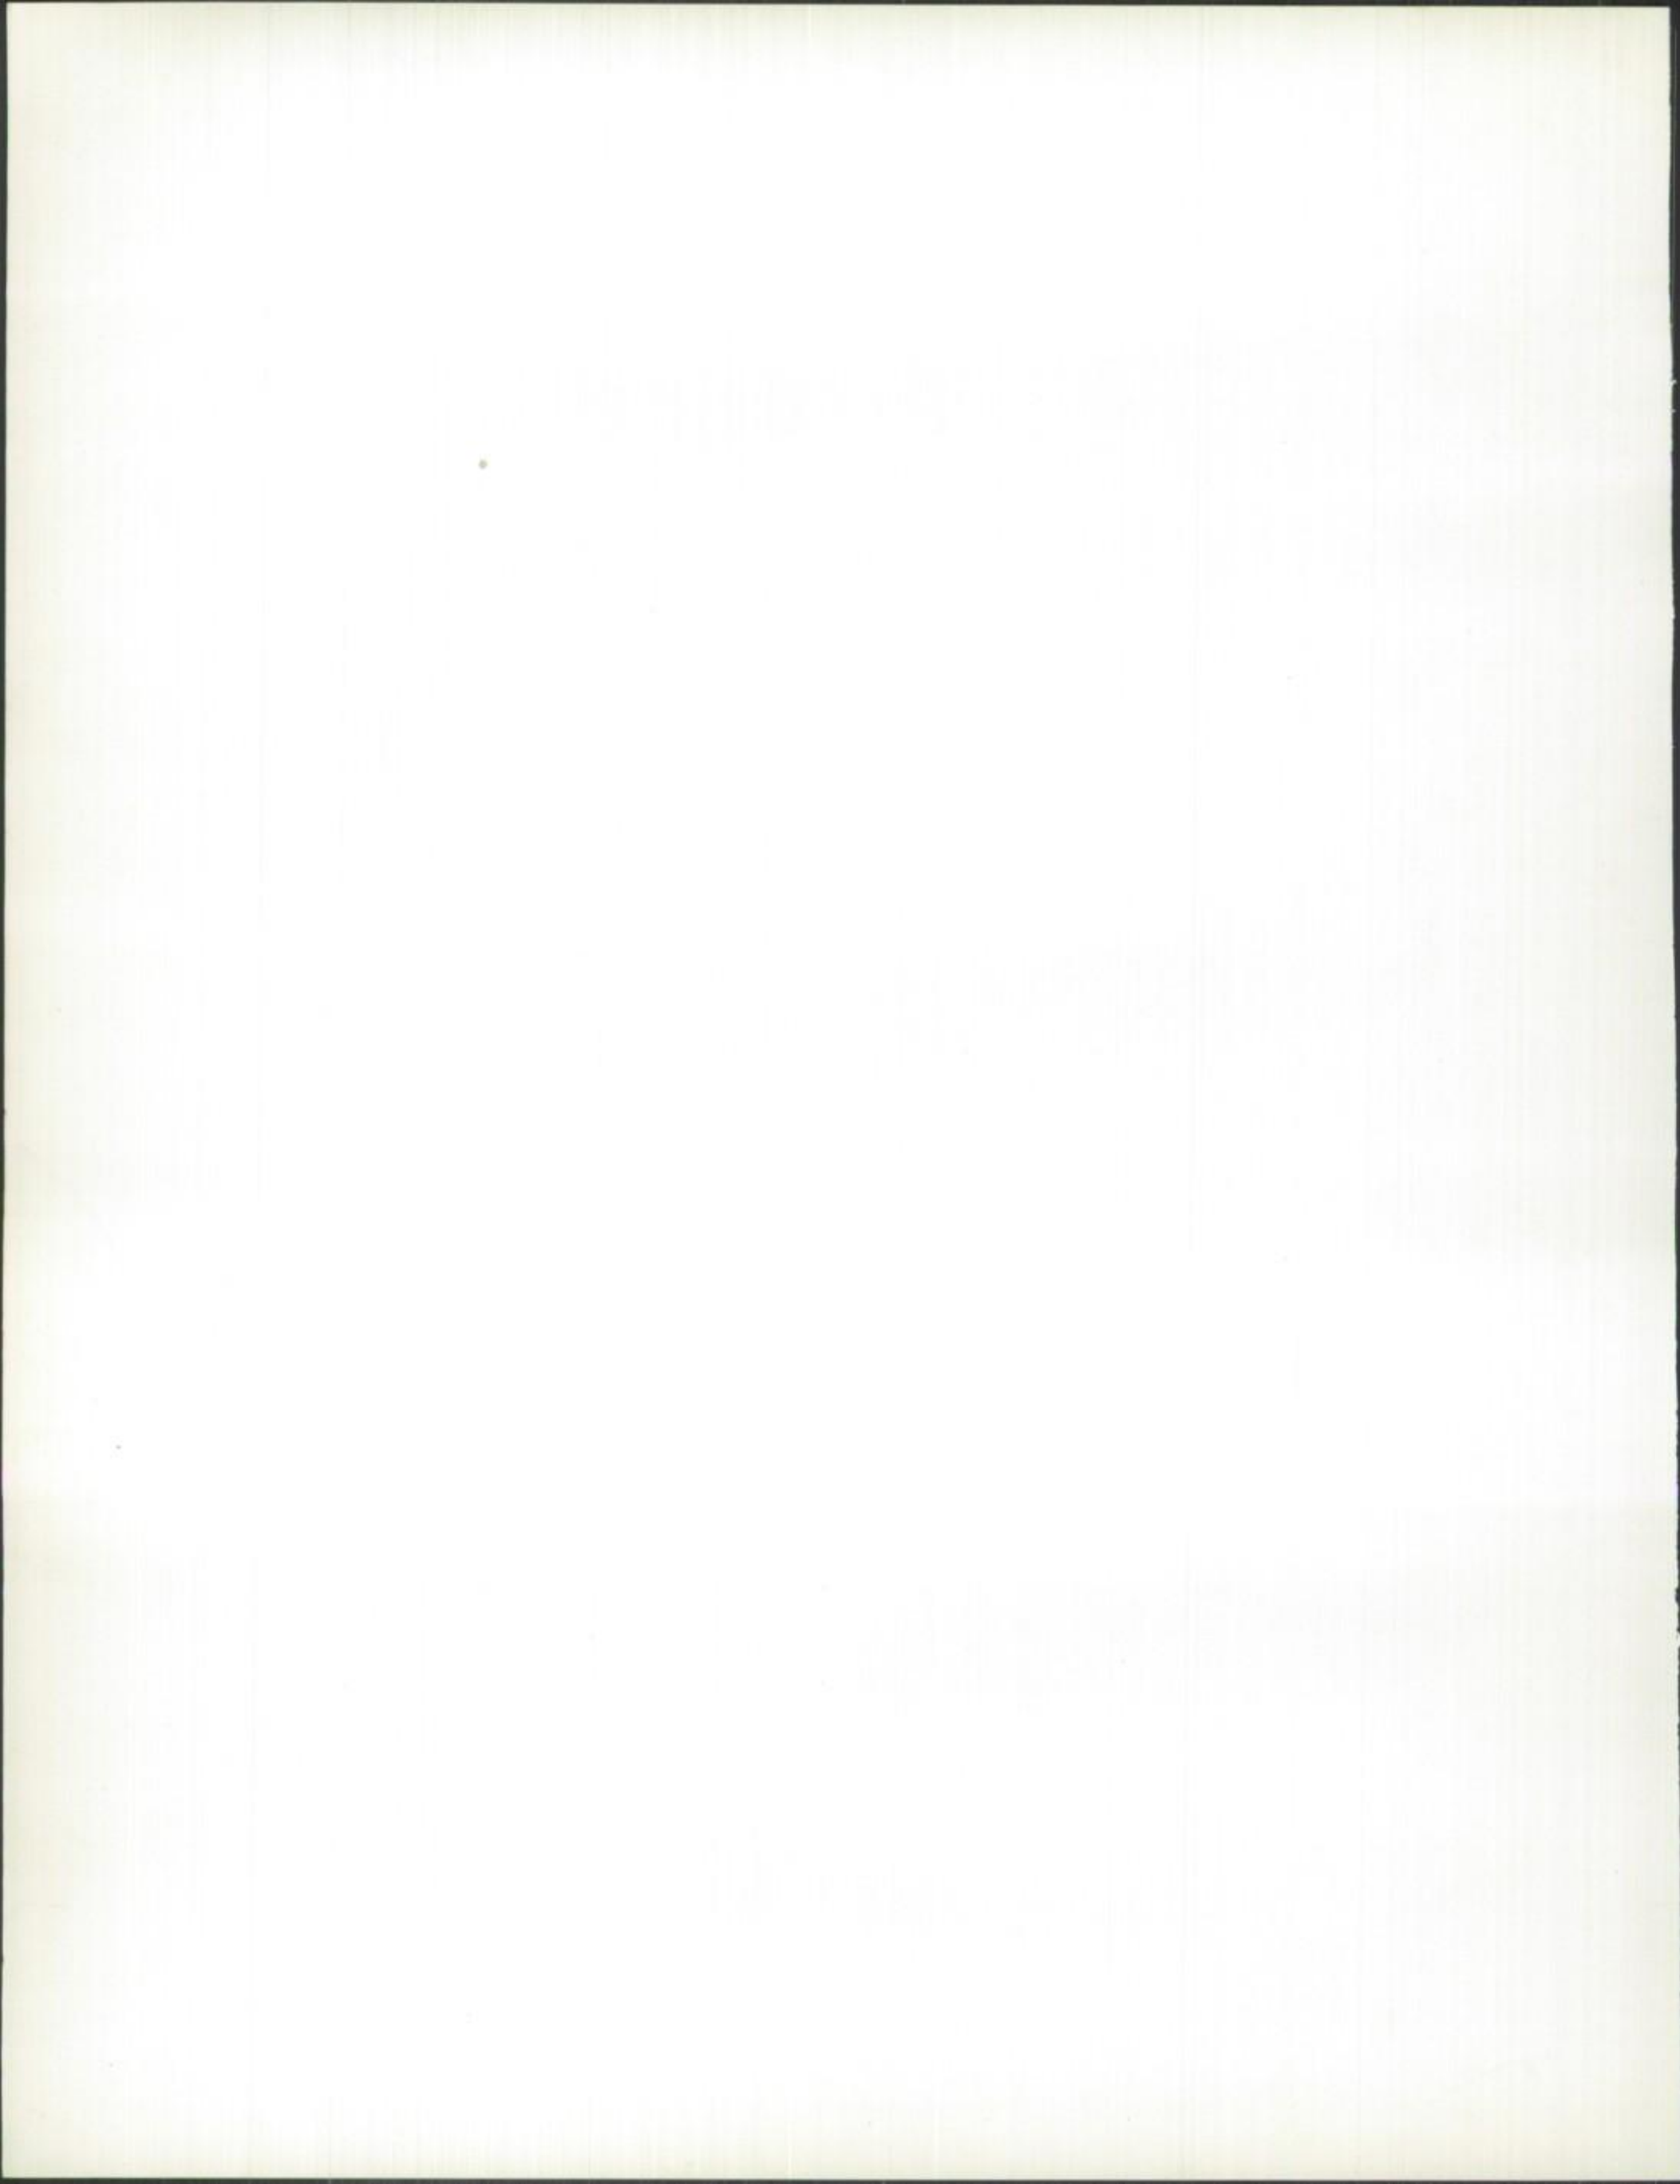

I just want the staff to know that when Mr. West, Mr. Wake or I yelled and returned copy it was because we wanted a better yearbook.

It's been a great year. I would like to thank the seniors, along with the rest of the student body for some of the problems they caused with the photographs we tried to take of them. Seriously, I think this has been my best year here at West.

Russell
